SALT RHEUM AND DANDRUFF

Cured that several physicians had failed to treat successfully.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—I have had the Salt Rheum on my head and all through my hair, also on my legs, for the past eight years, having suffered exceedingly with it. The dandruff falling from my hair was very annoying. I consulted several distinguished physicians in regard to it, and have taken their prescriptions as ordered, but did not find any cure and but little relief. I was told by many persons who have had Salt Rheum, and who have been ill of it for years, that there was no cure for it; that it was in the blood, and I should always have it, and I was almost inclined to agree with them, but I friend wanted me to try CUTICURA.

A BOGUS STATEMENT

BY A BOGUS LEGISLATURE.

The Cheap Tissue of Falsehood and Pettifogging with which Pillsbury, Gould & Co., Attempt to Humbug the Supreme Court.

STATE OF MAINE,
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
AUGUSTA, JAN. 1880.

The committee appointed to consider the question of the constitutional organization of the House and the present condition of affairs, and which has been instructed to prepare and present to the House a statement of facts with questions appended thereto to be presented to the Judges of the Supreme Judicial Court have attended to their duty and ask leave to report:

From evidence produced before your committee the committee find the following facts in regard to the returns of votes ...

... members and were called to order by W. E. Gibbs, Assistant Clerk of the preceding House of Representatives, (B. L. Staples, Clerk of said preceding House being unable to act) who presided until the members were qualified and a Speaker elected; said roll from the Secretary of State of Representatives-elect was called by said Assistant Clerk and 135 members responded to the call and a quorum was found to be present. Seventy-six members of said House whose names appeared upon said roll thereupon, took and subscribed to the oaths required by the Governor and Council and 76 members all being present and taking part in said meeting a ballot for Speaker was then had and John C. Talbot having received 72 votes was elected Speaker and upon further ballot being had Wingate E. Gibbs having received 72 votes was elected Clerk. ...

... summonses and whose names were not on said roll were then admitted as members of said body and were qualified by said Stratton as above, after which they proceeded to the election of officers as above set forth and attempting to transact some further business, said assembly then adjourned to Saturday, the 17th of January.

... votes, was elected, and upon further ballot being had Albert G. Andrews having received 19 votes, was elected Secretary. The records of the proceedings of said Senate to and including the 12th day of January is made part of this report and also said certified roll of the members of the Senate.

MONDAY, JANUARY 26, 1880.

Gould's Insult to the Supreme Court.

Mr. Ingalls, of the bogus legislature at Augusta, arrived here Saturday evening, and on Sunday evening submitted to Chief Justice Appleton the impudent protended "statement of facts" and questions that appear on our first page. These documents emanate from an irregular body of Fusionists who have been holding meetings in a dance hall in Augusta and who do not number—including all the counted-in brethren—anything like a quorum of the Legislature they pretend to be.

The statement and questions are understood to be principally the work of A. P. Gould, of Thomaston, the only lawyer of hitherto respectable standing who has been willing to connect his name with the Garcelon infamy. Mr. Gould has succeeded in identifying his name and fame so closely with the rascally business that he may have whatever comfort there can be in feeling that he is not likely to be forgotten while Garcelon and his steal are remembered.

The striking feature of the present phase of the Fusion struggle, however, is the effrontery of Mr. Gould in again presenting questions to a Court whose authority he has contemned, and whose mandates he has explicitly advised the then Governor of the State to disregard! We ask every reader to peruse the astonishing and disgraceful letter written by Gould to Governor Garcelon on the 4th inst., as printed in our telegraphic columns.

This member of the Maine Bar, who advised Governor Garcelon to ask the opinion of the Court, and who framed pettifogging questions intended to trap and hamper the Judges, no sooner learned that the opinion of the Court was adverse to his wishes than he wrote to the Governor of the State these shameful and revolutionary words: "I advise you to pay no attention to it." And yet the same lawyer has the hardihood to frame another set of false statements and deceitful questions on which to ask again the opinion of that Court for whose authority he has expressed such contempt. The preparation and presentation of these latest requests to the Court is a greater insult from Mr. Gould than his scandalous letter to Governor Garcelon.

The alleged "statement of facts" is so manifest a bundle of lies that no one can be deceived by it. When Gould says that on and after Nov. 25 the Governor and Council held open sessions in examining the returns and give ample hearings to all parties, he knows that as late as Dec. 10th and 11th he personally argued before Judge Virgin against a mandamus to compel the Secretary of State to exhibit to Republican candidates the official returns which had been sedulously concealed.

The other attempt to evade jurisdiction by asserting in each case that the Governor and Council "found as a matter of fact" that so and so "appeared to be elected," is quite as flimsy a falsehood. Mr. Gould, like other tricksters, forgets that a committee of the Council and Governor Garcelon himself have publicly stated the facts as they say they found them on the face of the returns, and under the Constitution and laws as construed by our highest Court, those facts did not show that the persons certificated by Garcelon "appeared to be elected." On the contrary the Court has decided on the facts admitted by the Governor and Council that the Republicans counted-out did "appear to be elected" and were entitled to their certificates.

The pretended "statement of facts" as to the organization of the Legislature is transparently dishonest. Mr. Gould follows his own advice to Garcelon to "pay no attention" to the recent opinions of the Court, and coolly proceeds to declare that on the first Wednesday in January members of the House and Senate holding summonses from the Governor "duly issued," attended in full quorum and organized both branches. Mr. Gould knows that the Court has decided that summonses held by parties fraudulently counted in were not "duly issued," and that the holders of them were not entitled to take part in organizing either branch; and that furthermore an organization of House or Senate in which the holders of such illegal and void certificates made up the quorum, would not be valid.

In the cheap and tricky effort to raise a quibble with the Court over its definition of a quorum, which was perfectly clear in the first opinion, and which has been made plain enough in the second opinion for a dunce to understand, Mr. Gould presents himself in the role of a police court shyster attempting to badger a witness by a play upon words. When he tries that sort of disreputable tactics upon the Supreme Judicial Court of Maine, his lack of commonsense is quite as apparent as his want of professional dignity.

The pretended "statement" and the questions are insulting to the intelligence of the Court, which is presumed to have some knowledge, and in asking the Judges to ignore the very facts and issues that lie at the core of the controversy as they have already twice decided, he adds to the affront of his scandalous letter of Jan. 4th.

The Chief Justice will either confer with his associates individually by telegraph as to whether the Court shall entertain the propositions, or else summon the full bench here to decide whether the questions shall be considered. As the merits are entirely covered by the two recent opinions the Court will not be likely to waste much time on so obviously pettifogging a device.

ENDORSERS OF FRAUD.

THE ALLIES BEHIND THE SCENES.

Gorham L. Boynton Approving the Steal.

A Barrel of Damaging Letters on Tap.

When the Fusion conspirators got out of the State House in a hurry last week they had not time to cover up their tracks or burn up the accumulation of letters and documents connected with the great counting-out fraud. The ubiquitous newspaper man appears to have been promptly on the ground, however, and we learn that quite a large "barrel" of highly interesting documents and correspondence was collected and copied for the future information of the public.

As a first instalment we have been able to obtain the following copy of a letter written to Governor Garcelon by that red-hot Bourbon Gorham L. Boynton, of Bangor, in which he heartily approves of the fraud perpetrated in the "tabulations" which cheated the Republicans out of thirty-seven Senators and Representatives! The letter was written long after the full details and proportions of the villainy were known of all men, and shows the deliberate purpose of the Democratic leaders to endorse and sustain any crime that would give them political advantage. Here is Boynton's shameful letter, with his praise of Garcelon's "wisdom" and "prudence" displayed just as it was underlined for emphasis in the original:

BANGOR, Dec. 31st, 1879.

HON. ALONZO GARCELON,

Dear Sir:

Allow me to congratulate you on your eminent success in defending your position in regard to the examination and tabulation of the returns. Your opponents have been foiled at every point, and I think you may rightfully consider yourself as master of the situation. We now have our opponents in the wrong and I hope nothing will be done to give them an advantage in position. It has been said by some that it might be necessary to call out the Militia. I sincerely hope that this will not be necessary every other means should be exausted before resorting to that.

Having full confidence in your WISDOM and PRUDENCE and that of your constitutional Advisors,

I am

Yours,

Respectfully,

G. L. BOYNTON.

Remember that when Boynton wrote that letter he was actually a Representative of Bangor to the 59th Legislature, and would have voted on behalf of this city if the Legislature had been called together.

Note the Satanic glee with which he exults that Garcelon has made himself, by outrageous fraud, the "master of the situation!"

See how he rubs his hands as he hopes the militia will not be called out until every other means is "exhausted!"

Mark how he not only hastens to embrace Garcelon but also proclaims fellowship with his "constitutional advisers," Foster, Fogg, Brown and the rest of the villainous crew!

And who would not have expected the conspirators to find backing from just such sources? How eminently fitting that the man who jeeringly told our Union volunteers in 1861 that they would only make manure for Southern fields, should hasten to endorse the attempt of political thieves to steal the liberties of the people of Maine!

In the above letter Gorham L. Boynton appears as the sympathizer, encourager and approver of a scheme of fraud so disreputable that the Democratic press of the whole country outside of Maine has scathingly denounced it!

The "barrel" is on tap and we shall from time to time give other interesting specimens of the secret history of the great crime against the ballot.

SENATOR BLAINE IN BOSTON.

Senator Blaine was the recipient of distinguished honors in Boston on Friday afternoon last as the guest of the Massachusetts Club at their dinner at Young's Hotel. Among the prominent gentlemen present, beside the guest of the day, were Gov. Jewell of Connecticut, Hon. Marshall P. Wilder, Hon. Charles J. Noyes, Hon. Charles W. Slack, Judge Putnam of Uxbridge, Hon. Jacob Benton of Lancaster, N. H., Hon. Daniel W. Gooch, Harvey Jewell, Esq., Stillman B. Allen, Esq., and many others. Collector Beard presided, and, after the inner man had been fully satisfied, he rapped to order, introducing, as the first speaker, to whom he referred as the chief instrument in extricating the people of Maine from the danger in which they had been placed by the unscrupulous action of their political opponents, Senator Blaine who made a very happy and telling speech and was followed by nearly all the gentlemen above named, who joined in complimenting the distinguished guest. Mr. Allen took occasion to remark that, four years ago, Mr. Blaine received a great many votes for the Republican presidential nomination, and that this year Massachusetts will stand squarely up and give a vote for the Maine Senator that would do honor to the State of Maine, and honor to the old Bay State.

"A GIGANTIC MORAL FRAUD."

[From the Philadelphia Times, Ind. Dem.]

The decision of the Supreme Court of Maine is conclusive against the Fusionists on every vital point, and if they shall persist in maintaining a pretended government in defiance of the judgment of the court, they must simply resolve to maintain a mob and to invite anarchy. There is now but one peaceable way out of the trouble, and that is for the counted in Fusionists to vacate their seats and concede them to the rightful claimants. Any other line of action must put them in the attitude of creating a revolution to sustain what is known to be a gigantic moral fraud and what is now judicially decided to be a legal fraud. Under the decision of the Supreme Court the honestly elected Republican Senate and House have promptly proceeded to choose Mr. Davis Governor, and he will have the highest sanction of the law to employ any necessary force to disperse the Fusion pretenders as a lawless mob.

PROTECTING THE CAPITOL.

The people of the State will heartily commend the action of Governor Davis in taking effective measures to protect the State Capitol against the manifest treasonable designs of the unscrupulous tribe of Folsoms, Bloods, Blacks and others who under Joe Smith's instructions have been trying to enlist an army of tramps to assail the State House. We have confidence that those inciters of riot and revolution will be taken care of in due season, and in the mean time the public will be glad to know that the presence of an adequate force of loyal militia renders the State Capitol safe against any surprise or assault.

CONGRATULATIONS.

Governor Davis received the following congratulation from Lynn, Mass., on Saturday:

LYNN, MASS., Jan. 17, 1880.

At a special meeting of the Republicans of Ward three of the City of Lynn it was voted—

We hereby extend to the Hon. Daniel F. Davis our heartiest congratulations on his election as Governor of Maine.

That our sympathies are with him in the difficulties which surround him on his entrance upon his duties, and we congratulate the law-abiding citizens of Maine that the victory which their patience, prudence and perseverance has achieved for the cause of popular government not only in their own State, but throughout the Nation has given renewed assurance that the principles of Republican government are not only deeply rooted in the minds of the people, but are firmly fixed in the organic law, and strengthening our faith that "government of the people by the people for the people shall not perish from the earth."

To Governor Daniel F. Davis, Augusta, Maine.

FRANCIS G. TUFTS, President.

"GROTESQUE IN ITS LAWLESSNESS."

The New York Public, a leading financial and commercial journal, whose editor is an influential hard-money Democrat, has the following plain references to the Garcelon-Smith villany in this State:

Has the Democratic party any desire to elect a President of the United States? Sometimes we doubt it. It seems incredible that any body of men, having a real desire to succeed, should be guilty of such phenomenal and superhuman stupidity as has been shown by the Democratic party in three distinct matters within the past year. The extra session, with its revolutionary demands and threats, was a matchless blunder in its day. The performance in Maine, so grotesque in its lawlessness, and so revolting to the general sense of justice, was still more damaging. * * * The difficulties in Maine have at last reached a settlement. The Supreme Court, in reply to questions from the Republican members organized as a legislature, delivered a decision fully sustaining that body and declared the action of Governor Garcelon and his council entirely illegal. Under this decision the organization of the so-called Fusionist legislature, and its election of a governor were also illegal, and were therefore properly disregarded by General Chamberlain. The lawful legislature thereupon proceeded to elect a governor, and Governor Davis was then recognized by General Chamberlain and by the Supreme Court. The end of the long wrangle ought to have been reached some time ago; in truth there has been no decent reason for resisting what was known to both parties to be the will of the people, and the attempt to defeat that will is altogether the most impudent performance yet known in American politics.

GOV. DAVIS' STAFF.

As there were several errors in the first publication of the names of Governor Davis' staff, we give them correctly below:

Brig. Gen. Chas. W. Tilden, of Castine, Inspector General.

Col. William S. Howe, of Pittsfield, Assistant Surgeon General.

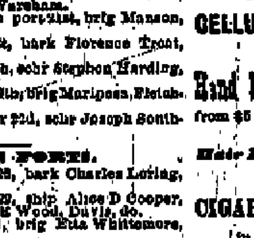

Col. Charles A. Bailey, of Oldtown, Assistant Judge Advocate General.

Col. Andrew M. Benson, of Portland, Assistant Commissary General.

Aides de camp, with the rank of Lieutenant Colonel—John T. Richards, of Gardiner, James D. Maxfield, of Dexter, Hollis B. Hill, of Auburn, Charles W. S. Cobb, of Rockland.

SATURDAY'S LEGISLATIVE PROCEEDINGS

Important Inquiries Instituted.

AUGUSTA, Jan. 24. The Republican Senate met and adjourned until Monday afternoon at four o'clock without transacting any business.

In the House on motion of Mr. Hatch of Bangor it was ordered that the finance committee inquire as to the expediency of providing for the payment of the bonds of the State due Aug. 15, 1880, by issuing new bonds therefor, payable as follows: $100,000 in one year, $100,000 in two years and $100,000 in three years, at a rate of interest not exceeding [illegible] per cent per annum, payable semi-annually; the payment of said renewed bonds to be provided for at maturity by taxation.

On motion of Mr. Hutchinson it was ordered that the committee on judiciary inquire what action if any is necessary to prevent any person or persons from falsely pretending to assume the functions and duties of any of the State officers.

The act in relation to the State seal, public records and documents, and to certain public officers and their duties, came up on its passage to be engrossed. Mr. Strout made an able argument in support of the bill, claiming that this is a legal Legislature, so recognized by the courts, the people and even by the Fusionists themselves. In his judgment 99 out of every 100 persons in the State believe this. The court has decided what the law is and there is the end of it. They have given their opinion fully and exhaustively, and it becomes an authoritative declaration. The court does not make the law but they have the power to declare it. Their decision is conclusive to all law abiding citizens. If not authoritative, what will be the result? The enforcement of right will depend upon might, and we are passed over to the hands of anarchy, turbulence and violence, and remanded to a State of barbarism. The attempts which has been made to take away the State seal and remove the records is to override the decisions of the court. Its plain end will be to resort to violence. Few crimes are more serious. To prevent it this law is framed. The bill then passed to be engrossed.

Mr. Hutchinson of Lewiston presented the following:

Whereas, Information has been received that certain persons have been engaged in enrolling men in a manner and for purposes unauthorized by the laws of this State, and whereas such enlistments and organizations tend to the disturbance of the public peace and to civil disorder and revolution, therefore:

Resolved, That a joint committee of seven on the part of the House, with such as the Senate may join, be appointed for the purpose of investigating the truth of such reports, and to ascertain what action if any should be taken, and make a report of their doings to the House, said committee to have power to send for persons and papers.

In presenting this resolution Mr. Hutchinson said it was proper and right for this legislative body to make inquiries concerning the truth or falsity of these reports. If true, for what purpose are these [illegible] being made? We are living in a time when we are surrounded by more or less peril. The question whether or not we have laws or a State is asked. If these reports are untrue the committee should so report them; if true, the parties who are engaged in this revolutionary proceeding should be found out and be made to suffer condign punishment.

Dr. Butler regretted as much as any man the exigencies of the times, but he was sure the men in authority are equal to the emergency.

The resolution received a passage and the following committee was appointed: Hutchinson of Lewiston, McKusick of Calais, Butler of [illegible], Ingalls of Wiscasset, Robinson of Oldtown, Lord of Bangor, Twitchell of Bethel. The House then adjourned to Monday at 11 A. M.

Gen. B. F. Harris has entered upon his duties as State superintendent of buildings, and has discharged all the Fusionists employed there.

LOSSES BY FIRE.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Jan. 24. A dwelling in Kittery, belonging to the Cooper heirs, was burned a few nights since. Loss about [illegible]; partially insured. It was unoccupied. Supposed to have been set by a tramp.

WALDOBORO, Me., Jan. 24. The barn and outbuildings owned by Col. [illegible] Morse, near North Waldoboro, were burned last night with their contents, viz: twenty tons of hay, one horse, three cows, one heifer, one yoke of steers, three sleighs, three farm wagons and all the farming tools. Loss [illegible]; no insurance. The fire is supposed to have been incendiary. A man has been arrested.

NEW YORK CITY.

Serious Railway Accident.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24. An engine of the elevated road jumped the track in Eighth avenue this morning at [illegible] street, and went through into the street below. Seven employees were on board, two being seriously, and others badly injured. The train was one which carries employees to different portions of the road between 1 and 2 o'clock in the morning. The engine fell [illegible] feet to the street, [illegible]. Edward Collins had a leg broken and his head injured. John [illegible] was severely scalded. Both are in the hospital. Edward [illegible], Wm. [illegible], F. C. [illegible], J. C. Schroeder and Wm. Ashball were also injured, but not seriously, and were taken to their homes by the police.

THE PACIFIC RAILWAYS.

Consolidation Effected.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24. The consolidation of the Union Pacific, Kansas Pacific and Denver Pacific Railways was accomplished this afternoon and the consolidated company will be known as the Union Pacific Railway Company. The following officers were elected: President, Sidney Dillon; Vice President, Elisha Atkins; Secretary and Treasurer, Henry McFarland; Directors, Fred Ames, Elisha Atkins, Ezra H. Baker and F. Gordon Dexter, Boston; Oliver R. [illegible], St. Louis; Sidney Dillon, Russell Sage, Jay Gould, Solon Humphreys, David Dows and Thomas T. Eckert, New York; W. L. Scott, Erie, Pa.; Grenville M. Dodge, Iowa; John Sharp, Salt Lake City, and S. H. H. Clark, Omaha. The plan of consolidation is the exchange of stock of the three roads for that of the new company, dollar for dollar at par. The bonds of the roads remain as at present and there will be liens in the several divisions as originally placed.

AUGUSTA, Jan. 24. The companies summoned to the Capital for the protection of public property are, the Capital Guards of this city, the Richards Light Infantry of Gardiner, the Auburn Light Infantry and the Androscoggin Light Artillery. The two former companies were here Friday night, and were assigned duty at the State House. The other companies reached here at half-past five this Saturday morning. The Androscoggin Light Artillery brought with them a Gatling gun manned by fourteen men.

The troops are quartered in the Committee rooms and the battery is in position covering the east side entrance. The State authorities are now fully prepared to quell any unlawful disturbance or to repel any attack that might be made. Other bodies of State troops are in readiness to come here in case their services are needed.

Visitors to the State House would hardly have been aware that these companies were present in the building, unless told. Additional information was received at the Adjutant General's office to-day which not only confirms the reports that the Fusionists were enrolling in the county towns, but that they were converting Greenback clubs into regular Southern rifle clubs, and were going to adopt the shot gun policy. Other startling facts have been received which the military authorities for prudential reasons do not wish to disclose at present. Among the developments of the Fusionists' hostile intentions information has been received from Waterville that if a search warrant was obtained and Capt. Black's office in this city was visited, it might result in finding a box of carbines secreted there.

Many of the Fusionists went home today. The few remaining, it is said, will adjourn the bogus-bodies from day to day until the Court is heard from regarding the questions which they have framed. The leaders affect to call the precautionary measures taken a scare, but their plans were too well known for them to laugh off the matter in such a manner.

The fact that the Fusionists are going to memorialize Congress and also issue an address to the people of Maine, if it means anything, means that they have reached the last round of the ladder in their descent, and that when they hear from the Court they will step to the ground and "throw up the sponge."

The Bogus Legislature.

[TO ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

AUGUSTA, Jan. 24. The Fusionists again met in Union Hall this morning. Their ranks were thin as many have gone to their homes. Mr. Dickey put in the following order which was passed:

That a committee of one from each county be appointed by the House, with such as the Senate may join, to prepare a memorial to Congress and an address to the people of this State, fully setting forth all the facts relating to the organization of the House and Senate on the first Wednesday of January, and also the facts relating to the choice of Governor of the State, also members of the Council and State officers, and all other facts connected with the Legislature which may be deemed of importance by the committee.

The following were appointed by "the Senate and House:" [illegible] of Aroostook, Thompson of Knox, Parks of Somerset, [illegible], [illegible] of Minot, [illegible], White of Wilton, Webb of Deer Isle, [illegible] of Sidney, Dickey of Fort Kent, Staples of Parsonsfield, Perry of Camden, Bradbury of Norway, [illegible] of Lincoln, [illegible], [illegible] of Waldoboro, Woodside of Princeton.

Mr. Swan of Minot, said: If we had 76 members, good and true, he would bid defiance to the enemy.

Cushman of Sherman, was opposed to the Court and so was Hill of Exeter, but at the same time they would place no obstacles in the way.

Mr. Ingalls of Wiscasset, said that in submitting to the Court we should understand that every man of this organization shall remain here until the decision of the Court is received.

"The House" then voted to send the questions to the Justices of the Court. "The Senate" voted to concur with the House.

A communication was received from the National Greenback Committee of the State of New Hampshire advising the Fusionists to stand firm to the bitter end, and if need be fight for their rights. Both "branches" then adjourned until Monday next.

Precautionary Measures against the Fusionists' Plans.

The Auburn Light Infantry, Capt. Merrill, and the Lewiston Artillery Company, Capt. [illegible], with a Gatling gun, arrived here this morning at 5 o'clock. Other companies are under orders in the armories, and will be called out if necessary. All is quiet here this morning.

Every military company in the State is under arms. The Gatling gun in the State House has its muzzle facing the front door.

"Gov." Smith intimates that the Republicans may get all the fighting they want. Evidently the Fusion leaders are desirous of being arrested, but the authorities will not accommodate them unless their actions make such a step actually necessary to preserve the peace.

A suspicious occurrence at the Episcopal church last night confirms the authorities in their belief that a plot to burn the city really existed. Preparations were at once made to guard against such an attack. The Mayor's house was especially guarded. The Fusionist plot it is said was to set fires down town and thus divert popular attention while an attack was made on the State House, which the Fusionists have boasted they could easily capture with a small force. A telegraph wire is open from the State House to every point in the State, and the military can all be gathered here in a few hours, if necessary. Gov. Davis said last night: "I am slow to act, but I assure you that these people are not going to get possession of this government."

Henry Ingalls, of Wiscasset, went to Bangor this afternoon as the bearer of questions from the Fusion legislature to Chief Justice Appleton.

An Abortive Attempt.

There is evidently an attempt to rally the Fusion forces to-night, but it will prove futile. Evidence shows that there was a preconcerted plan to capture the State House last night, but wise precautionary measures prevented. The Government was just twenty-four hours ahead of the conspirators. Col. Blood and Davis of Smith's "staff" have recruited two hundred men in Biddeford and Portland and intended to send them to this city by the Pullman train, but the Governor ordered the Biddeford company to take the same train in the event that the Fusionists came, which meant to stop them there, and probably they went home. Fusionists from Lewiston intended to come, but reports late to-night show they had abandoned the plan.

Ample Protection.

The keeper of the Bangor Arsenal refused to give up the keys to Colonel Daniel White as ordered and the officials have telegraphed "take it by force if necessary." The force at the State House to-night is able to cope with a force of [illegible].

Congratulations.

The Government has received congratulatory and complimentary despatches from the Governors of Mississippi, New York, and New Jersey and a set of resolutions from a Grant Club in New York. Congratulations are being received by the Governor from all sections of the country on sustaining a fine government in Maine and that the government was strong enough to sustain itself. The action of the Court was warmly commended for the able decision that would serve as landmarks in the future and as bulwarks of Republican Government everywhere. No trouble is apprehended to-night. Governor Davis spent the night at the headquarters in the State House.

Illegal Enrollment of Men.

AUGUSTA, Jan. 25. The Governor and General Beale had the fullest justification for placing troops in the State House as information every day received is to the effect that the Fusionists were making preparations for an attack. The list of the company enlisted in Augusta containing 180 names has been obtained. Members of Smith's "staff" had enlisted men in Biddeford and at Lewiston. Documentary and other evidence sustaining these statements will be brought before the legislative committee on the subject. The aggregate of men raised for this purpose is about 2,500. The first orders that were issued by the so-called Governor Smith were to call out three companies of militia. The reports of the Fusion movements were duly authenticated.

A. P. GOULD'S SCANDALOUS LETTER.

Even A. P. Gould of Thomaston, who had been the legal adviser of Governor Garcelon, had advised him to stand by his position regardless of the opinion of the Court. The following letter was written by Mr. Gould to Garcelon on the promulgation of the first decision of the Court:

THOMASTON, 6th Jan., 1880.

Dear Governor:—I am too sick to go to you. The opinion is not worthy of respect. It is so partisan that all our people will denounce it. We might just as well have no Constitution if this opinion is sound. I ADVISE YOU TO PAY NO ATTENTION TO IT. IT IS NOT WORTHY OF IT; LET YOUR ACTION STAND. The whole matter is now before the Legislature. Protect all, who hold your summons in their right to seats in the Chambers of the House and Senate.

I am too sick to write more, having been awake all night in pain.

Yours truly,

(Signed) A. P. GOULD.

The Military Force.

From all the evidence adduced the authorities took the precautionary measures that have been taken, and called upon the only force the State had at its command. The people of the State would have held them to account had they permitted the State House to be captured through any laxity on their part. The military are under perfect discipline and comfortably quartered at the State House. Religious services were held there this p. m., with preaching by Rev. Mr. Tilden.

[illegible]

Letters are constantly arriving in upon the Governor from Legislatures and various organizations and leading men in different portions of the country, sending congratulations and approving the opinion of Court, and saying it would have weight not only in this State, but throughout the country. He received to-day letters from the Governors of Illinois and Minnesota.

There was a public installation of Masons at Bucksport Friday night. Quite a number of the members of the order from this city were present with their wives and at the close of the ceremonies Andrews' orchestra furnished music for a dance. It was a most enjoyable occasion.

ACCIDENT TO A FOG BELL. The weights to the government fog-bell at Owl's Head broke their chains Wednesday morning, falling with tremendous momentum through the platform. The noise of their fall was heard in Rockland, three miles away, and was thought by many to be a peal of thunder. These weights weigh several tons, and the accident will be an expensive one for the government.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT. The evening train to Skowhegan last Friday, stopped after its arrival to shift to another track two cars, one of corn and the other of merchandise. Coming upon the ice, they became unmanageable, left the rails and when down at the end of the bridge, went down the perpendicular precipice, forty feet, to the ice below. A brakeman saved himself by jumping upon the bridge from one of the cars. The engine did not go down.

PERSONAL. The Cleveland Herald says: "There is a rumor that Hon. Eugene Hale will be compelled to move permanently from his home in Maine and take up his abode in the State of Michigan. The great estate left by Senator Chandler requires constant attention, and Mr. Hale will be forced to devote his whole time to superintend it. BUSINESS NOTES. The shoe factory in Rockland was sold to Bliss & Hutchins, Boston, for $6,000.—The Auburn shoe factories are sending off more shops now than at any time since the middle of last October. The total shipments were 1,778 cases last week, a large gain over the previous week, and over three times as many cases as were shipped in the corresponding week of last year. Messrs. A. Cushman & Co., are shipping over one hundred cases per day, and many other firms are rushed with orders. The spring trade is the best for several years.

PERSONAL. A Monson correspondent writes that the appointment of Major Charles J. House, of that town, as Messenger to the Governor and Council has given great satisfaction there. He was a brave soldier and has always been an ardent Republican. He was a member of the 1st Maine Heavy Artillery during the entire term of its service. He enlisted as a private and was promoted to 1st Lieutenant. He was engaged in twelve heavy battles and was wounded at Spotsylvania Court House, being struck by nine rebel bullets. He was also wounded at Petersburg. Major House was one of the original organizers of the Piscataquis Veteran Battalion in which he has held the position of Captain and Major.

Walker, Quinn, Welch and Page, of the Bangor Club. Mrs. Crossman of the Crusade also added words of encouragement to the Club. The meeting closed by singing "Beulah Land."

DEATH OF AN ECCENTRIC PERSON. Joshua Norton, now generally known as Emperor Norton, fell dead in the streets of San Francisco Thursday, January 8th. His eccentricities had made him noted in the history of that city and he will be missed more than many a sane man. He has been insane since 1852. Like thousands of others in California, he amassed a fortune and invested in mining stocks and lost it all and with it his reason. He regarded himself as Emperor of the United States, wore a royal uniform and deported himself with royal dignity. Often during the rebellion he would issue his proclamations ordering out troops, raising funds, etc. He was always a welcome and attentive guest at all places of amusement or worship. All his eccentricities were harmless and everybody treated him with the utmost courtesy and forbearance.

UNITY CLUB. There will be a dramatic entertainment at Unity Hall this evening, when the plays "A [illegible]" and "Duncnaketty's Picnic" will be presented. The cast for the former will be as follows: "Marianne Sanford," Miss Chapman; "Mr. Sanford," T. W. Baldwin; "Arthur Merton," Walter Morison. In the latter play the following gentlemen and ladies will appear: "Peter Dunducketty," a middle aged bachelor, F. A. Owen; "Charles Laughton," F. G. Boynton; "Alphonso De Pentonville," a youth with poetical tendencies, L. A. Barker; "A. D. Piccolo," J. M. Bright; "Viola," T. W. Baldwin; "V. I. Olive," Isaiah K. Stetson; "Letitia, Dund whistle's piece," Mrs. Henry McLaughlin; "Mrs. Muslin," Mrs. Frank Leavitt; "Servant," Miss Hemingway. The venture will commence at eight o'clock. Members will be admitted on showing regular cards; tickets for the public generally will be twenty-five cents each.

UP-RIVER NOTES—THE PEOPLE INDIGNANT—GENERAL ITEMS. Our correspondent at Nopen at Winn, writes: There is quite a general movement in this section in favor of the "plain people" holding Town Meetings to express their indignation at the course pursued by the Fusion Representatives, which is against all law, order and decency, and call upon them to either go into the legal Legislature and give them a representation, though inferior, or resign and come home. The persons who defend them in their contemptible course are very rare, and are the creatures of the Fusion office holders. The Lincoln bore declared last fall or summer, after he returned from Medway, which he attempted to misrepresent at Union Hall, that he had been speaking to the Medway cattle.—Bark hauling has been delayed somewhat for the past few days by the heavy snow, followed by a rain storm. E. Poor & Son expect to finish hauling their bark by the twentieth of March.—Rev. F. Pember has postponed his lecture on his experience in Canterbury, New Zealand, until next Thursday.—An old gentleman by the name of Pratt, was injured recently, while driving a colt from Winn to Lee.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

An Able Sermon by the Pastor, Rev. F. T. [illegible].

As stated in Saturday's issue, Rev. Mr. [illegible], by request, repeated his sermon of last Sunday morning last evening. He took for his text Psalm 97, 1—2: "The Lord reigneth; let the earth rejoice; let the multitude of isles be glad thereof. Clouds and darkness are round about him: righteousness and judgment are the habitation of his throne."

There have been times in all ages when men have been anxious for moral and civil welfare, and looked on the tangled web of human events and apparently saw might triumph over right, and looking on the wrong side of the canvas, saw no beauty, no harmony of colors; saw no controlling mind, had no hand moving over all to accomplish something divine. The disposition of man is to lose faith in God, but all evidences show not force or anarchy reigning, but God.

He then alluded to the attempts of destructive criticism, after years of [illegible] from a superstitious fear to enter the realms of holy revelation. At last the barriers were broken by outward pressure, and, claiming, proceeded to prove the creation without a creator, and to destroy the basis of the Bible for the purpose of invalidating precepts connected with these facts. And to-day the leaders of evolution stand and confess a God, and find the revelation in the Book of Nature the same as the record written in the Bible—written when man could not even guess how the world was created.

We find that God reigns in the establishment and preservation of Government which while recognizing all duties of man to the State yet recognize the higher duties to God. A Government is made for man not man for the Government. He briefly referred to the attempts to establish such a Government in Egypt and other nations even before Christ, and in the century following the Crucifixion, during the reign of John, when Jesus was driven from the throne, the uprising under Cromwell, the Reformation in the 16th century, the germ of which was preserved and finally brought for higher nourishment to the New World.

The world is passing through a great crisis. The weakest, since has been emphasized during the past months of ballot before to be the ballot. We have through years of [illegible] forgotten that an outrage against the ballot is an outrage against the stars and stripes and we find evidences that God has permitted the great evil to be brought from the South to a State in the North where an outrage like this was not thought possible to be permitted to show us that the sanctity of the ballot is that of the flag. There is no nation from which this cry of liberty is not escaping. The crowned heads of Europe and Asia tremble on their thrones. Back of the nihilism of Russia, the materialism of Germany, communism in France, various land questions of Ireland lie this want and cry of the people for liberty. Even while welcoming the bride of the King in Spain, the only escape from anarchy was in concession made by the King.

The peril of this hour is emphasized in importance by the fact that the eyes of the eastern world that prophesy ruin are upon us. In the Vatican machinations are taking place directed by the Archbishop Manning in order to get control of America by the ballot. In the crisis through which we have [illegible] ballot should be kept pure, and the integrity preserved as true as that of the flag.

The masterly papers lately presented to the people by the Judges will be the twin beacon lights to guide us over the perilous time and the names of the illustrious men will go down to posterity, not only with the love of liberty of those who live now, but with the praise of their successors.

Through it all is seen the hand of God giving to man the largest liberty and He always interferes in behalf of liberty and will be with us through this crisis until the government shall be purified by the fire and we all shall see the salvation of God.

Taken in Charge by Gen. White.

PICKARD'S MAN SMITH REFUSES TO OBEY ORDERS.

On Saturday afternoon Lieut. W. E. Lord who is commanding the Jameson Guards in the absence of Captain James M. Davis, received a telegraphic order from Assistant Adjutant General Frank E. Nye, of General Chamberlain's staff, to obtain seventy guns with other equipments from the State Arsenal to be shipped according to orders from headquarters. At the same time Mayor Brown was notified by telegraph of the order sent to Lieut. Lord, who was given by the Mayor a note to H. S. Smith the Arsenal Keeper. That blatant Fusionist who so eagerly delivered arms and ammunition on Christmas Day without any orders and simply under the instructions of Amos Pickard the jack-knife reformer and Fusion Alderman from Ward Seven, plumply refused to obey or recognize any orders except those of "Governor" Joseph L. Smith or his representatives. Lieut. Lord and the Mayor at once telegraphed the fact of Smith's refusal to Augusta and were informed that Lieut. Col. Daniel White, commanding the First Regiment Militia would attend to the case on his arrival here on the evening train from the State Capital. At 8.30 P. M. Col. White received the following despatch.

AUGUSTA, Jan. 24, 1880.

Lieut. Col. Daniel White, 1st Regt. M. V. M.

You are hereby appointed to take possession immediately of the Arsenal at Bangor and hold possession of the same and all property therein.

(Signed) DANIEL F. DAVIS, Governor.

Col. White at once detailed a guard of the Jamesons to proceed to the Arsenal, and then in company with Lieut. Lord he went to Smith's house and showed him the Governor's order. Smith refused to give up the keys, and Col. White reported the fact by telegraph. In reply he received orders to take immediate possession of the Arsenal and to use force if necessary. A guard was stationed over the building Saturday night, and on Sunday forenoon Col. White had the doors opened by a locksmith and new locks put on. He went through the building and put Lieut. Lord and thirteen of the Jameson Guards in charge. A stove was put up in the empty building in the rear and the guard will be quartered there for the present.

Sunday afternoon Smith went up to the gate but the guards refused to admit him. This fellow has shown himself a most fruitful tool of the Fusionist conspirators, being entirely under the control of Pickard, and it is well that the Arsenal and its contents have been placed in more trustworthy hands. It is hoped that when an inventory is taken it will be found that all of the State's guns, etc., have not been kept in the Arsenal. A loyal man will at once be appointed to supersede Smith, and a careful account of stock will be taken.

There are some advertised remedies fully worth all that is asked for them, and one at least we know of—Hop Bitters. The writer has had occasion to use the Bitters in just such a climate as we have most of the year in Bay City, and has always found them to be first-class and reliable, doing all that is claimed for them.—Tribune.

KIDNEY COMPLAINTS of all descriptions are relieved at once, and speedily cured by Kidney-Wort. It seems intended by nature for the cure of all diseases of the kidneys caused by weakness and debility. Its great tonic powers are especially directed to the removal of this class of diseases. Try it to-day.

It gives me great pleasure to say that Adamson's Botanic Balsam cured me of a severe cold, to which I have been subject, especially during the winter months, and I have in many instances recommended it to my friends, and all have been benefitted by its use. We think it has no equal as cough balsam.

GUARD AGAINST DISEASE. If you feel yourself getting bilious, head heavy, mouth foul, eyes yellow, kidneys disordered, symptoms of piles tormenting you, take at once a few doses of Kidney-Wort. It is nature's great assistant. Use it as an advance guard—don't wait to get down sick.

NO MORE HARD TIMES. If you will stop spending so much on fine clothes, rich food and style, buy good, healthy food, cheaper and better clothing; get more real and substantial things of life every way, and especially stop the foolish habit of employing expensive, quack doctors or using so much of the vile humbug medicine that does you only harm, but put your trust in that simple, pure remedy, Hop Bitters; that cures always at a trifling cost, and you will see good times and have good health. THE GRAVE OF [illegible]

In the land of southern beauty—
Where the sweet arbutus creeps,
With the dark and trailing myrtle
And the climbing ivy twines,
Where the air is filled with perfume
From the fragrant woodland bowers,
Stands a mansion dark and olden,
Half way hid in woods and flowers.

In the forests and the meadows,
Sing the birds their blithesome song,
But around the dark gray mansion
None are heard the whole day long
And the flowers breathe their incense
All unheeded on the air,
None are gathered in the garden,
Although flowers of the fair.

But that dark and gray old mansion,
With its silence and its shade
Once was filled with happy voices,
Once the merry children play'd
'Mong the bowers in the garden
Ran along the oaken hall,
But the ivy now entwineth
With the mosses on the wall.

Nevermore will sound of footsteps
Echo 'long the oaken floor
Nevermore will children gather
Nevermore by the open door!
Evermore with [illegible]

Mortal [illegible] life's rugged pathway
